Davisburg Fall Fair
Update
Sunday, September 7, 2008

The sun shone on Davisburg for our annual fall fair and pancake breakfast. 100 neighbours spent the morning enjoying pancakes, a small market and friendly competition in the fair. Entries in the fair included baking, preserves, artwork, crafts, photography, sculpting, vegetables, a guinea pig, and more. Gladys Shymanski took home the honour of most unusual vegetable with her onion plant that was more like a small tree. There were many creative entries as well in the category of best excuses for not entering the fair.

Special thanks to all of the Davisburg volunteers including: Jerry & Lynore Park, John & Eva Ingram, Karna Wolfe, Candice Young, Erik & Signe Tudor, Paul & Brenda Taylor, Marion Woodward, Ruth Olson, Theresa Berglund, and Diana & Jay Froc. Thanks too for the surprise visit and performance by magician Chris Hogan. What a treat!

Prizes for the fair were graciously donated by Okotoks Home Hardware, Okotoks Fountain Tire, The Saskatoon Farm, XCel Survey's, Marion Woodward, and the Davisburg Community Association. Thank you!!!

You have twelve month's to get your entry ready for next years competition. See you there!

Thank you for your support!

Every third Friday of the month bring in your recycling as a horse trailer is at the school for your convenience to fill up!
