Remembering Al Straub

Al Straub was part of this community since 1990 when he bought his land on highway 552 by the Highwood River. He is remembered for his community spirit, always willing to help with events both at the Davisburg Hall and the Davisburg Church by bringing his BBQ for pancake breakfasts and the Stampede BBQ's for many years. Many people had the opportunity to pick saskatoons at his farm and enjoy the harvest. He passed away on February 14 at Silver Willow Lodge at Nanton.
